Jon,
FYI – it seems that there is a water leak on LCP again. Please see the email below from GAF.
Thanks

Subject: Water leak

Hi John I notice this morning that the water company contractor Creamer wanted me to open the gate for the LCP property due to a water leak .This leak is located in the area of Nustar and the water in running into the creek. I have opened the gate for them and they are waiting on the water company.
