I'll need to call you tomorrow. You in?

The public comment we got was from a citizen, saying:

"The proposed 332-acre Gunnison Copper Project in Cochise County, between Benson and Willcox, Arizona should not be allowed because fracking of this nature has inherent uncertain ecological consequences that could endanger the lives of both humans and animals in the region. I live in nearby Grant County, NM and am thoroughly opposed to such fracking."
