Re: Freedom of Information Act Request - 78308
Dear Ms. Onyszko:
This letter is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) (5 ILCS 140/1 et seq.) request dated July 24, 2013 and received by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency (Illinois EPA) on July 24, 2013.

The information responsive to your request is attached.

Requested Information-opacity monitoring and emission reports
Ameren Energy Resources Edwards Plant-7800 S Cilco Ln, Bartonville

Due to large file sizes, the information responsive to your request is being sent using the State of Illinois CMS file transfer utility. An email message will shortly follow this response that will contain a link allowing you to download the information. Please download the information at your earliest convenience as the link will expire in five (5) days.

Due to the large volume of records responsive to your request, you will need to schedule an on-site records review at the Illinois EPA headquarters located at 1021 North Grand Avenue East, in Springfield. The total volume of responsive records to this item of your request(s) exceeds 3.5 lineal inches of paper files. We have included a list of reports for the timeframe you specified. Each report has an ID number (1st column). If you wish to narrow your request by a specific report type or by specific ID numbers, it may be possible to provide copies to you. Note: You received some of the reports on the list electronically; the remainder of the reports are paper files.

Please contact my staff by September 3, 2013, at (217)558-5101 to arrange an appointment to inspect the files. Appointments are scheduled during normal business hours, which are 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, exclusive of State holidays.

Thank you for your patience in this matter.

Sincerely,

Thomas J. Reuter
