Thanks for sharing. What are the anticipated steps after meeting with the tribal govs as we move towards this summer? Apologies for all the questions as I'm green to this process.

Good evening Troy:

In response to your email to alexis, here is a letter I sent last Wednesday to Greg lovato, the head of the NV department of environmental protection (NDEP). The letter was copied to local and tribal government officials.

As noted in the letter:

This letter provides NDEP additional detail and clarification on a few of the key criteria that will be considered by EPA in determining whether a deferral to Site cleanup by ARC under NDEP oversight is appropriate.

The letter is a part of the deferral process and was discussed with NDEP.

With NDEP, we will be working with the affected tribal governments over the course of the next several weeks to address their concerns about a potential deferral.

Please let me or Alexis know if you need anything else or have any questions.

Sincerely,

Enrique Manzanilla
