Re: Request for Information under Public Records Act ("PRA"), Federal Records Act ("FRA"), and the Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA")

Dear Ms. Kercheval:

By way of introduction, Standard Alcohol is a clean tech IP company that specializes in high performance oxygenated fuel additives technologies with advanced environmental properties. Our request is part of a broad market research effort that aims at identifying how our technology could most benefit our country and its environmental policies.

Within the statute of the Renewable Fuel Standard ("RFS"), established by the Energy Policy Act of 2005 (EPAct, P.L. 109-58) and amended by the Energy Independence and Security Act of 2007 (EISA, P.L. 110-140), the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) has waiver authority. Under the provisions of the Public Records Act ("PRA"), the Federal Records Act ("FRA"), and the Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"), we kindly request from your organization the following information:

- List of all fuel providers and petroleum refineries by states under your regional jurisdiction (Region 10: Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Alaska) that have been granted RFS waivers of any form, including but not limited to partial waivers, for the period starting January 1, 2010 through present day.
- For each of those individual RFS waivers, please include a copy of the waiver letter, the name and location of the beneficiary, quantities waived, and the effective period of the waiver.
- If any of the requested information falls partially under the exemptions as defined under the PRA, FRA and FOIA, we kindly request that you aggregate that information at a level that, while satisfying those specific exemption provisions, still complies with PRA, FRA and FOIA general objectives as set by the legislators.
- More specifically, if the beneficiary of those waivers are granted confidentiality by the EPA, our request would be satisfied if we can still have that waiver information on a no-name basis or aggregated at a state level.

Your help is greatly appreciated, and your answers to our request should be directed to lynn.newman@standardalcohol.com.

Please do not hesitate to contact us directly by email or phone (see below) if you want to clarify any aspects of our request.

I look forward to your response.

Lynn
