I know. So are you OK with this? Also, are you going to be able to meet with me at 5? I have a FOIA I need to talk to you about but will go ahead and email you the details.

Ryan and Liz – we have to start releasing calendars in connection with a FOIA production that is in litigation – American Oversight v. EPA and this calendar is due tomorrow November 16. I apologize for the last minute but I just got the redacted version. This is Don Benton's calendar from February 21 – May 18, 2017. This calendar was compared to the Administrator's calendar that was released and processed and there are no inconsistencies on the overlapping dates in terms of content or redactions up through the May 18 portion of this calendar.

Please let me know if you have questions or concerns.

Beth
