Hi Andrew- I am following up because I did not receive a response to my last email regarding a time to talk. I am out Monday, the 1st, but back on Tuesday. I believe you wanted to speak to EPA prior to the 10/3 meeting.

We are also available tomorrow at the times previously identified. This afternoon for us no longer works.

Hi Andrew-

I am available Thursday from 9-11 your time and the same for Friday. Adam Wilson who is the counsel on this complaint would join us for the call. Please let me know which option works better for you. Thanks!

Thank you Brittany. In reviewing the situation with my client, I think we have a potential solution for resolution. Assuming any settlement discussions are confidential, I'd like to talk it over with you to see if it would be viable. The ADC Board meets on October 3, I was hoping to schedule a call prior to that so I can update them on the direction. I have some time later this week, Thursday (9/27) or Friday (9/28) in the morning (HST) are best for me.

Thanks,

Andrew

Hi Andrew,

I hope this note finds you well. I am sending this email as a follow up because I have not received your feedback on the draft concepts document or the sample informal resolution framework that was shared a few months ago. I am checking on the status of your review. Please let me know when you have a moment as we would like to continue to move forward to resolve this open Title VI complaint.

Please let me know if ADC has any other concerns about moving forward in this manner.

Thank you,
Brittany Robinson
