Tuesday, 1 May 2018—The Commission for Environmental Cooperation (CEC) invites the public to join the annual gathering of its Council, comprised of the environment ministers of Canada, Mexico, and the United States. Council Chair, US Environmental Protection Agency Administrator Scott Pruitt will host Canadian Environment and Climate Change Minister Catherine McKenna and Mexico's Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources Rafael Pacchiano Alamán in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, United States.

The public is invited to participate in the following events:

- A one-day public forum of the CEC Joint Public Advisory Committee (JPAC) focused on emerging topics related to environment and economic growth, and increasing private sector engagement in CEC trilateral initiatives on June 26
- An opening event at the Convention Center and welcoming reception with the Ministers the evening of June 26 at Chickasaw Ballpark
- A roundtable conversation on Innovation and Partnerships for Green Growth on the afternoon of June 27. The discussion will feature a dialogue with all three environmental ministers as well as the North American winners of this year's CEC Youth Innovation Challenge.
- An exhibition showcasing CEC's work to protect and enhance North America's environment
