WILCOX OIL: The Wilcox Oil Superfund site is former oil refinery located in Bristow, Creek County, Oklahoma. Environmental issues associated with the facility include a number of refinery waste source areas of concern including a backfilled oily waste pond, backfilled waste pits, and a number of tank bottoms.

- Special Notice Letter issued July 28, 2014
- 6 potentially responsible parties
    - Marathon Oil
    - BP Corporation
    - Atlantic Richfield
    - BNSF
    - Sunoco
    - Sun Pipe Oil
- At this time all parties have declined to participate in good faith negotiations.