Subject: Recurring call for NAS Environmental Stressors & Infectious Disease Workshop [Action Needed]

Dear Committee Members,

I am reaching out in order to coordinate a time for you all to be on a phone call for further discussion on the planning and proceedings for the January 15-16, 2019 workshop, Understanding the Interplay of Environmental Stressors, Infectious Disease, and Human Health. This call will be approximately 60 minutes, starting next week, and be recurring weekly until the meeting in January.

Action items include:

1. I have created a WhenIsGood poll available here to log your availabilities for next week.
2. Please also reply to me with any specific times during the week that you regularly have blocked off as not free (i.e., lectures, recurrent meetings, field studies, etc.), so that we can accommodate your schedules more easily in the future.
3. As a gentle reminder, please review the Background Information and Conflict of Interest form and sign and return to either myself and Audrey by Monday, October 15.
    a. I have attached the form again for your convenience, but it is the same document Audrey sent on Monday in her email about this week's phone calls.

I would like to thank you all in advance for the quick turnaround time with your availabilities.

Best,
Jessica De Mouy
