Hi everyone. I can do 10 PST as suggested and also have flexibility throughout today if needed. I'm on the way in to the office now.

Jason,

By any chance are you available to talk about Rosemont at 1300 DC time today? It is critical that we talk as we will be brought into discussions here later at the OW/OFA level. Just want to mainly catch up on activities and proposed way forward. If you are not available at that time, what other time would you be available? Clay – what is your schedule?

Thanks
