Suzanne,
Victor Ketellapper reports that there was another site that had not cleared OMB, but OMB approval on that site is expected today. If that happens and the AA-OLEM signs the rule by Thursday, then the rule will be published next week on Thursday.

Thanks, Mark. That's good news. I had heard rumblings that the FR notice could be held up because of another site that hadn't gotten through OMB.

Looks like that the HQ press release on adding the CFAC site to the NPL may occur as early as Tuesday Sept 6 with the federal register notice on Sept. 8. I let you know if I hear if the press release will be issued on Sept 8th or latter.
