Good morning. I am in a mandatory all-day meeting staff meeting.
Are you in on Monday?

Thank you, Cynthia. I am working without a voice, which is horrible. If you need to discuss, the best thing to do is communicate through email.

Mike and Cynthia,

Our office is beginning to prepare the final community update for 2015. Is there anything you would like to have included or to provide for the publication? I am attaching the most recent issue to provide an idea of what we prepare. The upcoming issue is intended to include highlights of project efforts in 2015 and overall plans for 2016. It is mailed directly to addresses (homes and businesses) close to the site, as well as other key stakeholders, such as the panel and elected officials. The total mailing list is 628.

If you could provide your input by COB, Friday, December 11, I would be most appreciative. Once we complete the draft, I will send it back out to you for review.

Much thanks,
Mary
