Yep – I think we should keep the running list internal between us and only provide Suzanne the list of topics under each heading that we plan to discuss that meeting. Keep it simple. Looks good, unless Suzanne wants to add something.

Yes, for sure it is too much for one meeting, but I thought we wanted to have a sort of running list of "hot topics" that we would chug through in relative priority order at these bi-weekly meetings – do you all think we should just include the specific topics we are planning to discuss with SB on that meeting's agenda?

Or I could restructure – see below:

Thanks for putting together – It appears to be too much to discuss at this meeting. I thought we were going to discuss the overall format of the meetings with her for about 10-15 minutes and then just focus on the Cost Recovery Conference and SF collections as programmatic issues then spend the last 30 minutes on Tronox/Smurfit Stone Mill.

I would suggest waiting until the next meeting to discuss the other parts in blue (US mag/Park City) if we can. Or Move Tronox to the next meeting since it's not a rush and discuss Park City or US mag.

Based on our discussion this am – here is what I would propose to send to Suzanne, please comment, add/subtract – we should send to her by Weds, so thanks for quick attention – k

Suzanne – Andrea, Aaron and I have put together a short agenda for our bi-weekly CERCLA meetings with you. We have broken topics down into the areas below. We will NOT be covering each and every topic at every meeting, but will update you on the most pertinent ones at our meetings (highlighted in blue for 1/8 meeting). This list will change, of course, and we will be sending it to you before our bi-weekly meeting. Please let us know if this is a useful format and also if you have anything that comes to mind immediately that you would like to see on this list right now. Thanks – k
