SUBJECT: Memorandum of Record for USPTO IAA No. 14129057-0000-002
DATE: April 7, 2016

The following memorandum for the record is prepared in support of the 2nd Amendment to the Interagency Agreement (Agreement) between the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO), an agency of the Department of Commerce (DOC), (the Parties), regarding performance of reimbursable work by EPA Administrative Law Judges (ALJs), support staff, and court reporters, entered into on June 25, 2014 and amended on May 19, 2015, is to renew the Agreement for an additional year, through May 29, 2017; add $80,000 in funds for required additional services, thereby raising the cost ceiling to $200,000; and provide USPTO's current year financial tracking information.
The Contracting Officer warrants that:

1. In collaboration with the Program Office the determination is hereby made that execution of this IAA is the most economical and effective option is to procure these services.
2. The servicing agency has capabilities or expertise to provide the required supplies or services.
3. The serving agency is authorized by law or regulation to provide the supplies or services on behalf of other agencies.
4. The fees are fair and reasonable.

The United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) confirms:

_X_ that sufficient funding amounts are available;

_X_ that this agreement is in the best interest of the United States Government; and

_X_ that the services requested cannot be provided by contract as conveniently or cheaply by a commercial enterprise.

_X_ that this agreement satisfies the requesting agency's schedule, performance, and delivery requirements.

_X_ the assisted acquisition of services acquired under this agreement provides the best value for the USPTO.

Performance of Reimbursable Work

USPTO IAA No. 14129057-0000-002

The purpose of this 2nd Amendment to the Interagency Agreement (Agreement) between the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO), an agency of the Department of Commerce (DOC), (the Parties), regarding performance of reimbursable work by EPA Administrative Law Judges (ALJs), support staff, and court reporters, entered into on June 25, 2014 and amended on May 19, 2015, is to renew the Agreement for an additional year, through May 29, 2017; add $80,000 in funds for required additional services, thereby raising the cost ceiling to $200,000; and provide USPTO's current year financial tracking information.

Hence, the following sections are hereby modified to read:

VII. Maximum Costs

EPA billings to USPTO under this Agreement are not to exceed $200,000 unless this Agreement is modified by bilateral written amendment. It is anticipated that if future years are added, this cost ceiling will also be raised by written amendment.

VIII. Costs

USPTO will reimburse EPA upon receipt of invoice for 100 percent of the costs incurred during this period as a result of the performance of this adjudicatory work. This includes personnel compensation at current salary (to include actual cost-of-living adjustments) for the period of time specified in this Agreement; all normal personnel benefits paid by EPA for these employees; all overtime authorized by USPTO; supplies specifically purchased for work completed for USPTO cases; and an overhead cost for administrative services attributable to the reimbursable work performed as determined by EPA, not to exceed 13% of the salaries and benefits costs. Any travel to hearings required in the performance of the reimbursable work will be reimbursed to EPA for actual costs incurred through the issuance of EPA travel authorizations. Funds will be obligated for these costs as the reimbursable work is performed in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. EPA will bill USPTO through the Department of Treasury's On-line Payment and Collection (OPAC) system.

1. Resolution of Disagreements

Should disagreements arise on the interpretation of the provisions of this agreement or amendments and/or revisions thereto, that cannot be resolved at the operating level, the area(s) of disagreement shall be stated in writing by each party and presented to the other party for consideration. If agreement or interpretation is not reached within 30 days, the parties shall forward the written presentation of the disagreement to respective higher officials for appropriate resolution.

If a dispute related to funding remains unresolved for more than 30 calendar days after the parties have engaged in an escalation of the dispute, disputes will be resolved in accordance with instructions provided in the Treasury Financial Manual (TFM) Volume I, Part 2, Chapter 4700, Appendix 10, available at http://www.fms.treas.gov/tfm/index.html.

2. Cost Collection Upon Cancellation

If the IA recipient cancels the agreement, the Environmental Protection Agency is authorized to collect costs incurred prior to the cancellation of the agreement, plus termination costs, up to the total payment amount provided for under the agreement.

USPTO IAA No. 14129057-0000-001

The purpose of this 1st Amendment to the Interagency Agreement (Agreement) between the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO), an agency of the Department of Commerce (DOC), (the Parties), regarding performance of reimbursable work by EPA Administrative Law Judges (ALJs), support staff, and court reporters, entered into on March 17, 2015, is to renew the Agreement for an additional year, through May 29, 2016, modify the cost ceiling, and provide USPTO's current year financial tracking information.

Hence, the following sections are hereby modified to read:

VII. Maximum Costs

EPA billing to USPTO between May 28, 2015 and May 29, 2016 is not to exceed $60,000, thereby modifying the total ceiling amount to not exceed $120,000, unless modified by amendment to this Agreement. It is anticipated that if future years are added, this cost ceiling will also be raised by written amendment.

VIII. Costs

USPTO will reimburse EPA upon receipt of invoice for 100 percent of the costs incurred during this period as a result of the performance of this adjudicatory work. This includes personnel compensation at current salary (to include actual cost-of-living adjustments) for the period of time specified in this Agreement; all normal personnel benefits paid by EPA for these employees; all overtime authorized by USPTO; supplies specifically purchased for work completed for USPTO cases; and an overhead cost for administrative services attributable to the reimbursable work performed as determined by EPA, not to exceed 13% of the salaries and benefits costs. Any travel to hearings required in the performance of the reimbursable work will be reimbursed to EPA for actual costs incurred through the issuance of EPA travel authorizations. Funds will be obligated for these costs as the reimbursable work is performed in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. EPA will bill USPTO through the Department of Treasury's On-line Payment and Collection (OPAC) system.
