Karen,
FYI, here's text I sent last week regarding the AA briefing for acrylonitrile.

Karen,
here's some proposed text regarding the need for an AA briefing for acrylonitrile. Hope this is what you were looking for. I'm happy to rework. I'm saved it as a word file and also copied it into this email below.
thanks,
Sue

Jamie and Sue:

Becki wants Vince to send an e-mail to Kevin Teichman asking whether Kevin wants another briefing on acrylonitrile before releasing it publicly.

If we include sufficient information, I'm hoping that Kevin will say he doesn't need another briefing.

I thought we could include the fact that Kevin was briefed last year and the document was within days of being released, the only changes we've made are to the ADAFs, changing to the default from the data-specific derviation, the difference between the old and new value, and that we are planning to send a note as an FYI to the interagency and agency reviewers shortly before the document is released.

I'm not sure which of you is the right person to ask, but could one of you please pull it together. The schedule calls for releasing this assessment the week of May 30 so it doesn't need to be done immediately, but within the next week is okay.
