State Water Resources Control Board Staff Training Plan Outline for the Industrial Stormwater General Permit (Amended in 2018)

I. Regional Water Quality Control Board (Regional Water Board) Training

A. Northern California Training

1. Location: Sacramento; State Water Board 980 K Office
   a) Length: 1 day (10 am – 3 pm)
   b) Content: Total Maximum Daily Load and Compliance Option implementation in the 2018 Industrial Stormwater General Permit
   c) Training type: In-person and web-based (recorded)
   d) Target audience: Northern California Regional Water Board staff
   e) Schedule: August or September 2019

B. Southern California Training

1. Location: Sacramento; State Water Board 980 K Office
   a) Length: 1 day (10 am – 3 pm)
   b) Content: Total Maximum Daily Load and Compliance Option implementation in the 2018 Industrial Stormwater General Permit
   c) Training type: Web-based (recorded)
   d) Target audience: Southern California Regional Water Board staff
   e) Schedule: August or September 2019

2. Location: Los Angeles, Santa Ana, and San Diego[1]
   a) Length: 1 day at each location (10 am – 3 pm)
   b) Content: Total Maximum Daily Load and Compliance Option implementation in the 2018 Industrial Stormwater General Permit
   c) Training type: In-person
   d) Target audience: Southern California Regional Water Board staff
   e) Schedule: August or September 2019

[1] The Los Angeles Regional Water Board plans to conduct additional trainings/workshops in their Region and will be coordinated with the State Water Board trainings accordingly.

II. Public Training

A. Northern California Training

1. Location: Sacramento; State Water Board Cal EPA Meeting Room
   a) Length: 3 hours
   b) Content: Total Maximum Daily Load and Compliance Option implementation in the 2018 Industrial Stormwater General Permit
   c) Training type: In person and web-based (recorded)
   d) Target Audience: Public, regulated community, non-governmental organizations in California[2]
   e) Schedule: August or September 2019

B. Southern California Training

1. Location: Los Angeles and Santa Ana
   a) Length: 3 hours
   b) Content: Total Maximum Daily Load and Compliance Option implementation in the 2018 Industrial Stormwater General Permit
   c) Training type: In-person and web-based/recorded if possible
   d) Target audience: Public, regulated community, non-governmental organizations in Southern California[3]
   e) Schedule: August or September 2019

---

[2] Southern California public participants can attend the Northern California training as it will cover statewide compliance examples.

[3] Northern California public participants can attend the Southern California training but will not cover Northern California compliance examples.