Subject: Dicamba answering brief for review

Attached is the brief from DOJ for our review. As Michele stated in her email from Friday, we need to have any comments by COB Wednesday the 28th in order to turn around all of our comments to DOJ by the morning of the 29th. On a very specific note, on page 38, I would like EFED and RD to review the characterizations of the NOAEC and LOAEC regarding the volatility studies, so please provide any edits on that page.

Feel free to call me, Michele or Bob over the next few days if you would like to discuss. Thank you all for your continued support on this effort!

Ariadne

Subject: Heads-Up on schedule for receiving the Dicamba answering brief for review

We have been working with DOJ over the past few weeks to get to a decent brief in this complex case. We are expecting a draft for your review on Monday (by 5 pm). Unfortunately, we will need to have any comments by COB Wednesday the 28th in order to turn around all of our comments to DOJ by the morning of the 29th. The brief will be filed on April 9th. Attorney Client / Ex. 5 Attorney Client / Ex. 5 Thank you to everyone in OPP for helping us explain our positions. We shall see what happens when we get to argument (likely this summer).

I'm attaching the opening brief so you become familiar with the arguments before you see our response.

Thanks
