Thanks Komal for sending your presentation. It was nice to spend time with you as well. Hope your recover soon from the jetlag; I've also been struggling. Yesterday was really rough, a little better today…

Best,
Anita

Dear Nancy and Anita,

I hope all is well. It was nice to spend time with both of you in Seoul. I am still recovering and am convinced the jet lag is only getting worse, not better.

Steve and I are sorry that you missed our presentation, so as promised, I am attaching our slides. I also have asked for an electronic copy of the slides presented by the Denmark Consumer Council on their ingredient disclosure application. Once I have it, I will forward it along.

All the best,
Komal
