Hello Mr. Darwin,

Attached please find a letter to you describing Denka Performance Elastomer's efforts regarding the PBPK model we are developing and a response to the subject letter from Ms. Holloman, dated 11/1/18. Please review and let me know if you have any questions. This letter will be sent to your attention via certified mail as well.

Again, we appreciate the collaborative work with EPA on the model, and look forward to making sure the most sound and up-to-date science is applied.
