Wayne,
We are beginning to process NOIs for the upcoming site characterization wells at ST012 pursuant to ST012 Field Variance Memo #4.

You should be hearing from ADWR regarding these NOIs in the next week/two weeks.

Our target date for drilling is the week of October 24 but is dependent on regulatory comments, AF approval of NOIs and subcontractor mobilization to the site.

Please contact Cathy Jerrard if you have any questions.

Thank you-
Gwen
