Just checked and I think I've covered it all – but let me know if you think I'm missing anything.

Subject: Redlines with conditional approvals (COB Monday)

HI Liz,

Sorry to bother again about the admin record. We had some last minute shenanigans from PPG on Friday with the FS. So we are beefing up the admin record by adding redlines that were provided to PPG with conditional approvals. It would be helpful if you can do a quick search and send any redline or comments that were included as part of a conditional approval. It would be super helpful if you can send any by COB Monday.

Thanks,

Josh
