Suzi,

I wanted to give you an update on this permitting action and check in to see if you had any reactions to the revised draft EJ analysis that went out for public comment last summer (and particularly on the issues raised in the comment bubbles in the attached final draft). The Region has begun to review public comments (about 1165 pages) and outcomes from tribal consultation with the goal of issuing final permits this summer. The Water Division has asked for EJ program input by mid-April.

I'd be happy to set up some time for us to chat about this if it would be helpful.

Thanks,
Corbin

Hi Darcy,
A largely cleaned-up version of the revised draft EJ analysis is attached for your review. A few remaining items are flagged in the comment section. Please note the EJ program's new draft conclusion paragraph at 7.7.

Hi all – I completed my review f the EJ analysis and didn't have any substantive comments. I did respond to a couple of questions in comment bubbles in the attached version with my perspective.

Given we have a hard deadline of 8/26 for signature of the revised draft permits, we need to get the updated EJ analysis to Darcy by Monday 8/12 for her review next week. I know the EJ team is still determining their findings and conclusions (at least as of this version from Kimi). Please let me know what the status of that effort is and when this document will be complete.

Thanks,
Sarah
