Thanks, Valois!

Brian & EJ folks – the version of the EJ document that I reviewed still needs our EJ determination and conclusions. When will those sections be done?

Hi Brian,
I am going to add my parts to the document and email it out to everyone. At that point it should be ready for Kimi's final review.

Thanks for your feedback, Sarah. Kimi will back on Monday and can address any comments/feedback received when she returns. I'll touch base with her and we'll let you know if we can wrap this up by end of the day Monday or Tuesday. Are you looking for a status update in the meantime on any particular sections?

Hi all – I completed my review f the EJ analysis and didn't have any substantive comments. I did respond to a couple of questions in comment bubbles in the attached version with my perspective.

Given we have a hard deadline of 8/26 for signature of the revised draft permits, we need to get the updated EJ analysis to Darcy by Monday 8/12 for her review next week. I know the EJ team is still determining their findings and conclusions (at least as of this version from Kimi). Please let me know what the status of that effort is and when this document will be complete.

Thanks,
Sarah
