Hi Steve: with no intention of having you read this email train or the attachment, was the reference you made yesterday to EJ related to our attorney's statement below?

Hi Darcy,
A largely cleaned-up version of the revised draft EJ analysis is attached for your review. A few remaining items are flagged in the comment section. Please note the EJ program's new draft conclusion paragraph at 7.7.

Subject: RE: Revised Draft EJ Analysis for the Dewey-Burdock Project

Hi all – I completed my review f the EJ analysis and didn't have any substantive comments. I did respond to a couple of questions in comment bubbles in the attached version with my perspective.

Given we have a hard deadline of 8/26 for signature of the revised draft permits, we need to get the updated EJ analysis to Darcy by Monday 8/12 for her review next week. I know the EJ team is still determining their findings and conclusions (at least as of this version from Kimi). Please let me know what the status of that effort is and when this document will be complete.

Thanks,
Sarah

Hello,

Ex. 5 AC/AWP/DP

I'll be out on leave next week but if you have any questions, I'll be back on August 12.

Thank you,
Kimi
