Message

From: Rate, Debra [Rate.Debra@epa.gov]
Sent: 12/30/2020 3:57:33 PM
To: Adeeb, Shanta [Adeeb.Shanta@epa.gov]

Importantly, when previously registered aldicarb did not completely control ACP and orange and grapefruit acreage continued to decline after the 2005 introduction of HLB in Florida. Still, field data highlights aldicarb's efficacy of killing ACP in treated trees versus untreated trees (Stansly et al. 2009, Croxton et al. 2012).