COVID-19's Impact on Women's Work Experiences: Challenges and Opportunities

June 24, 2021

2:30 - 4:30 PM ET

The COVID-19 pandemic has greatly affected women's experiences in the labor force, with disproportionate consequences for women of color and low-wage earners. This Thursday, join the Societal Experts Action Network to explore efforts to mitigate challenges and create opportunities for women in the workforce.

Register Now

Speakers Include:

- Janet Currie, Princeton University
- Stephanie Monroe, Wrenwood Group

- Stefania Albanesi, University of Pittsburgh
- Claudia Goldin, Harvard University
- Ariane Hegewisch, Institute for Women's Policy Research
- Sondra Howell, Greater Memphis Chamber
- Jesse Wilderman, SEIU Healthcare Pennsylvania

This webinar will inform a rapid expert consultation from the Societal Experts Action Network on how state and local decision-makers can mitigate the negative impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic on women's experiences in the workforce.
