I'm fine with that approach. I just tried calling on Teams and left a message to call me back on another matter. It's fairly important.

Jason – Carol scheduled a workplace flexibility call at 2:30 today with all the ECAD managers. I'm thinking you and I will need to divide and conquer. It's probably better for you to be at both meetings, but I'm thinking that I can add no value to the New Indy call so maybe you should go to the New Indy call and I'll go to the workplace flexibility call. Todd G and I can catch you up on anything you miss from the workplace call. Are you ok with this or would you rather go to the workplace call?

Yes. Some things are probably going to be better for Denis to take the lead on, but I'm sure the two of us should be able to cover it together. We'll just have to see what their questions are.

Jason - Valerie and Marirose will likely take the lead in the general discussion with New Indy this afternoon, but can you take the lead for us in responding to any questions about the 114 or ask Denis to if it's better for him to answer? I don't know enough about the questions to be of any value.
