Subject: RE: Queen Creek TMDL report

Hi Kyle,
We are still working through the information that ADEQ provided. Would it be possible to hold the TMDL this week and next? In the next day or so I will be able to setup a call for next week aimed at wrapping this up.

Thank You,
Matt

Matthew,

I wanted to let you know that we are going to be putting the report out for review this week. We figured since we hadn't heard anything further from EPA that you would be submitting any further comments during the public comment period. Thanks for all the input you have provided so far.

Kyle
