Good Morning Christine,

Thank you for the call yesterday and the provided statement of work. We look forward to the other materials.

There was interest in the source of the data errors and possibility that they could be resolved as a contracting issue. In addition to my brief explanation in the call, I thought it would be helpful to provide our comments and where the errors occur in the contractor report source data. The materials better explain the errors.

Good Morning Christine,

Thank you for the email and schedule. Unfortunately I can't make tomorrow work because of a family commitment. Do you have time next week? Alternatively, if you have a few minutes today to squeeze us in, that would be appreciated.

Good Afternoon Christine,

We were referred to you regarding the nationwide contract by Sherry Kamke and Bob Egan. Are you available for a short call to provide some general contracting information? We are exploring utilizing Tribal Funds to expedite work.
