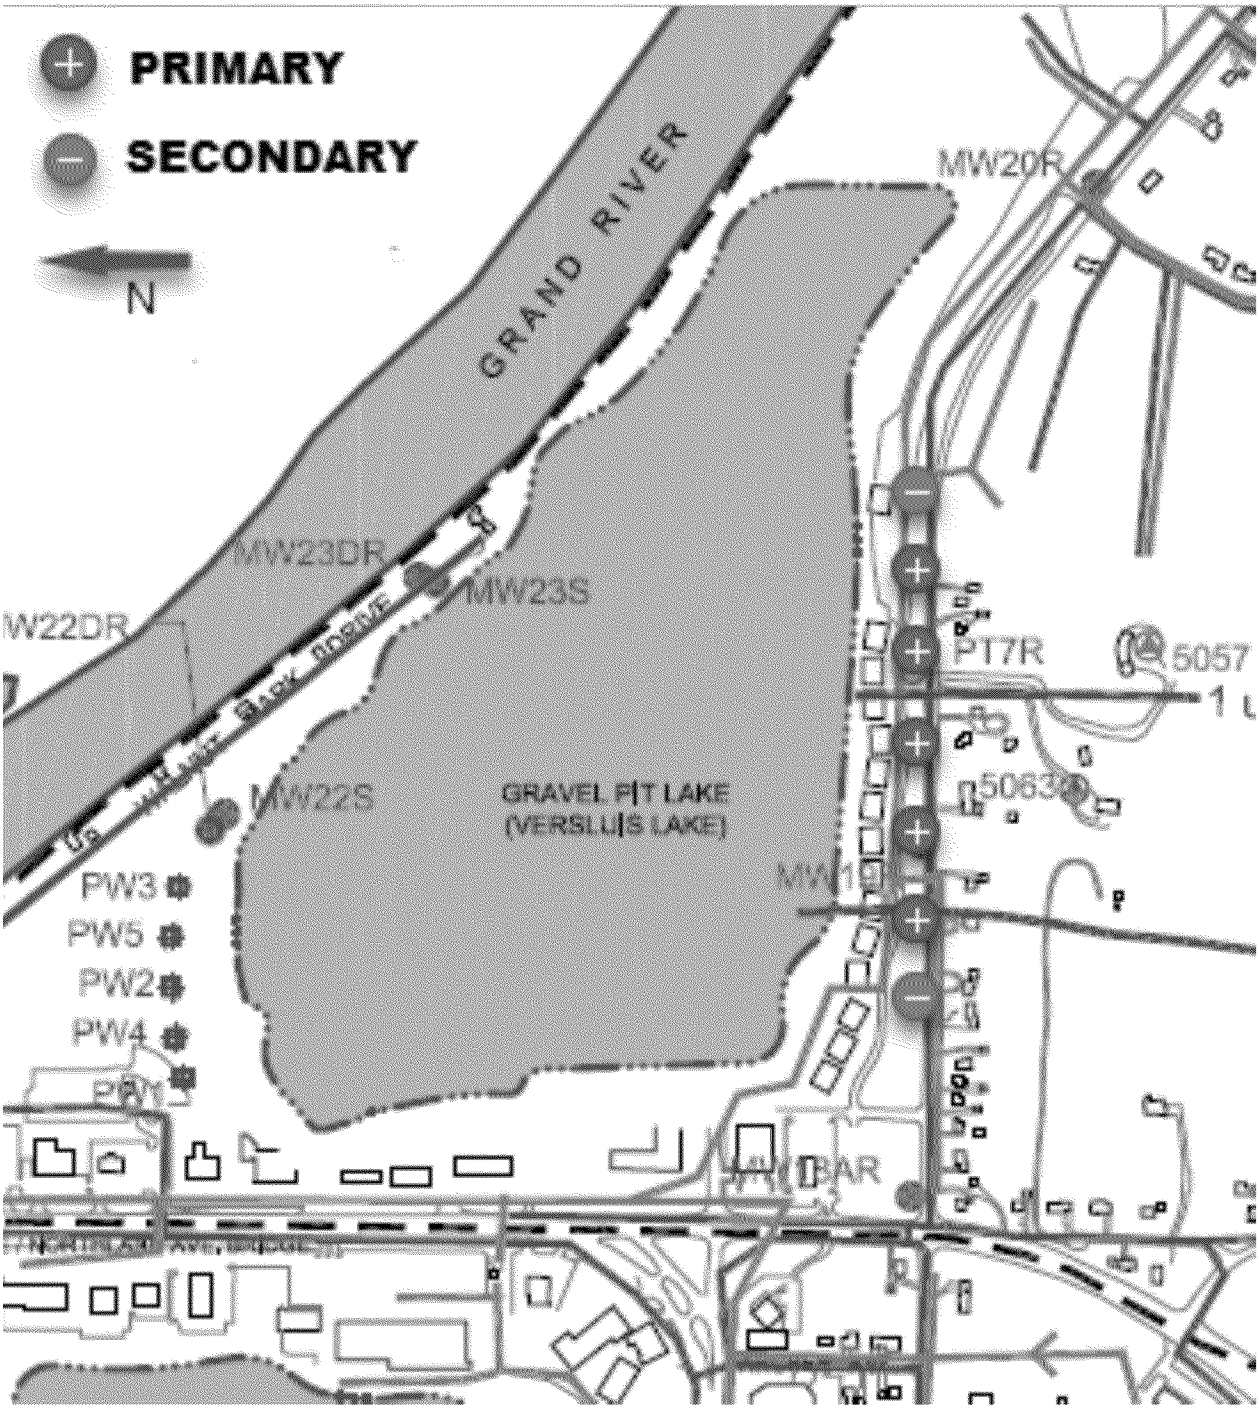
State Disposal Landfill Groundwater Investigation

Primary and Secondary Locations for Aquifer Profiling and Monitoring Well Construction



A minimum of 5 vertically profiled boring/well construction locations are anticipated and are identified as “primary” locations. Additional vertically profiled boring/well construction locations are anticipated given the conditions encountered (see the SOW) and are identified as “secondary” locations.