Hi Milo,

Here is the spreadsheet I mentioned in the last e-mail. Do you have the time to do this today? I am thinking it should not take too long, especially since you already have all of the data in that one spreadsheet. Is that an accurate thought?

Thank you,
Jenny

Hello Jennifer,

My name is Brent Ritchie and I am a START contractor working with Jeff Kimble on the Wolverine site in Rockford, MI. Jeff mentioned you as a contact for obtaining results from Wolverine's contractor for residential well sampling. We are starting to get preliminary data in and are looking to compare that to the previous results obtained by Wolverine. I've attached a table which summarizes the samples we collected during the most recent sampling event. Ex. 5 - Deliberative Process

Any help you could provide would be greatly appreciated.
