He said it might be to day but needed to talk with you about it. So I was hoping you had set a date.

John

Thanks Gerry,

When can EPA expect the pump test work plan(s) for the existing exraction wells and the new exraction well?

Mr. Ruopp,

EPA has reviewed the "2018 RCRA Corrective Measures Implementation Field Investigation Report" for the Central Wire/Techalloy site in Union, Illinois. This document was prepared by Autumwood ESH Consultants and is dated January 2019. EPA is in agreement with the basic conclusions of the report and has no comments to make.

Respectfully,

John –
Attached is the 2018 RCRA Corrective Measures Implementation Field Investigation Report issued January 2019. Due to their size, the TestAmerica Analytical Reports (attachments 1 – Report 1 & 2) are separately attached. And Figure 1-2 (legal size document) is both included in the report and separately attached as well.

Regards,

Gerry Ruopp
