Mark-

It is early out there in the fine state of Texas.... Rosemarie asked a couple of follow ups on Eagle Industries. I'll darken your door (phone line) once the sun is higher...

Was there ever a RCRA element? It seems like the company may have been violating RCRA for years. Did the Region ever talk to the state about this facility?

Joe and all-

I reached out to Mark Potts of R6 end of last week and he says that there is no RCRA element to this.

Greg, Dianna and Andy,
See Rosemarie's questions regarding possible RCRA violations related to this Oklahoma company. Are you familiar with this situation? I've got a call into Cheryl Seager, but can your reach out to your RCRA contacts in the Region and see if you can find out anything. We can discuss at your general tomorrow, if your able to track anything down.
