Rick

Yes, they are correct.

Thank you for checking.

Hi Koto:

HQ is asking we verify the NWQI watersheds for monitoring and tech assistance. I looked at this (attached) for Oregon and it appears to be correct- based on your previous submittals . But let me know if there are any discrepancies..

Thanks-

Rick

Regional Coordinators,

Attached is the list of watersheds selected for NWQI monitoring. This is the version we will be sharing with NRCS next week. The spreadsheet also indicates which states are requesting technical assistance and if the monitoring applications have been submitted.

Please let us know if you have any edits by COB Tuesday 11/12.

Thanks for your help in pulling this information together!
