INSPECTION REPORT COMMENTS

Date of Inspection 03-12-07 Identification Number PAD987367521

Company/Facility/Site Name Erie Industrial Trucks Inc.

Erie Industrial Trucks Inc (EIT) sells and services fork lift trucks. Wastes generated are those typically associated with automotive garages. The facility currently has about 22 employees, 11 of them are service mechanics.

The facility has 3 small parts washers that are serviced by Safety Kleen every 3 to 4 months and only generate about 7 or 8 gallons of spent solvents when serviced. EIT notified as a small quantity generator of hazardous waste and on 03-04-92 was issued the above identification number. A small quantity generator is one who generates between 220 pounds and 2,200 pounds of hazardous waste a month. Since EIT generates very small volumes of hazardous waste, I suggest EIT submit a subsequent notification form to change their generating status to conditionally exempt small quantity generator (CESQG). The appropriate form (EPA Form 8700-12), line by line instructions and the mailing address were provided during the inspection.

EIT sells and services fork lifts that are powered by either battery or propane. Spent batteries are stored on-site until about 40,000 pounds are accumulated and a (semi) load can be shipped. These are sold to Tonolli Canada LTD and are transported by Tonolli to their facility in Mississauga, Ont. The last shipment was made on 06-06-06; a shipment is made about once a year. New batteries are purchased from Douglas Battery Mfg. Co and any battery that fails at a customers location is managed by Douglas.

Waste oil is burned in a waste oil fired space heater and is used to heat the service garage. Waste oil is stored in two adjoining above ground tanks that have an estimated capacity of 300 gallons each. It could not be determined if the tanks were of double-wall construction; if they are not then they should have a containment structure around them that is capable of holding 110% of the total volume. The words "Waste Oil" should be on each tank.

Used oil filters are drained and disposed in the dumpster. I suggest the used oil filters be hot drained by puncturing a small hole in the top of the filter immediately after removal from the truck and let it drain for a minimum of 12 hours. Used oil filters may be recycled.

Spent anti-freeze is managed through Safety-Kleen. Waste tires are solid rubber and are bonded to a metal rim. These are stored inside until enough are accumulated to fill a small roll-off; ~~there~~ they are disposed at Lake View Landfill through Waste Mgt. Inc.

Should you have any questions concerning this report or about any waste related issues, please call me at 814-332-6828.
