Meeting w/ Dinah & Waldens 4/12/13
regarding Rosemont

- Jared has watched video: Cyanide Beach
- they will be showing Cyanide Beach on Friday 26th in Washington for Grijalva, Barber and other political representatives

Nan:
- Describe what became of Mr. Warkel's (sp?) failure to disclose bankruptcy:
  - Canadian SEC is looking into it, but the process is slow
  - DC lawyer for Waldens will be investigating
  - feels case shows that Rosemont does not have a good track record in maintaining their long term financial obligations

Dinah:
- Jeff Flake (new AZ senator) met w/ Waldens regarding Rosemont
- McCain has mostly stayed out of Rosemont so far → Jared: has not been contacted and expects that he would be if McCain was going to take position
- Waldens have met with Sen. Pastor as well
- APP being appealed - only 1 previous APP has been appealed

- to send copy of their APP complaint
  - -> one issue is stormwater projections were based upon total precip / 365
  - -> public review for ammendment? uncertain

NGOs

- ✓ Suspicion that Rosemont is just trying to run up their price but does not intend to actually mine.

- GW pumping immediately adjacent to Walden's pecan farm. Western most well is the only viable well. CAP water allocation is written to provide water in perpituity

Dinah:

- Investors in Rosemont include: South Korea, Red Kite?

Jared:

- why such limited funds committed to 404 mitigation?
  - ↳ limiting their financial liabilities?
