Bill,

Thanks for your email regarding Monday. We do not need any special equipment, but I would like to add one more person to the list: Ray Varcelona, with Lockheed Martin.

Here is our agenda

- Discuss EPA general approach, including suggested sampling locations, number of samples
- Access to containment cell - any specific Givaudan/NJDEP requirements
- Time frame for revised QAPP, sampling effort

We look forward to meeting with you on Monday at 2 pm.

Regards,

-Sarah

Hi Sarah:

I called and left you a voice mail on the meeting we have scheduled for Monday at Gibbons at 2 pm. Your team will need to check in at security and get a pass at the desk before coming up to the 21st floor of One Gateway.

Does EPA need any special technical items in the conference room for the meeting (screen, projector, etc.)?

Kindly advise.

Have a good weekend. See you on Monday.

Regards,

Bill

Bill,

Attached is the revised QAPP for the RM 10.9 dioxin investigation. I assume we are still on for 2 pm on Monday, January 27.

Hi Sarah:

Thank you for confirming the meeting date and time. We appreciate your offer to come to Gibbons and will graciously host the meeting in Newark.

Our office is in Gateway One and the meeting will be on the 21st floor. We are right next to Penn Station. You can take the Path or NJT to our office.

Also, thank you for the disc of background materials cited to in EPA's draft QAPP. I appreciate your responsiveness is getting it to me.

Let's touch base again in early January.

Have a wonderful holiday and New Year.

Regards,

Bill

Bill,

My apologies, but it seems that some people on my end have a preference for any day other than January 23. Would you have time on another day? If not, we will rearrange things.

Thanks

Bill,

Unfortunately those dates do not work for EPA. What about January 17 in the morning?

If that is not good, would you be available any day during the week of January 20 (other than the morning of January 23)?

Thanks,

-Sarah

Sarah:

Sorry that I was unable to get you possible meeting dates yesterday, as I was tied up on other matters.

Assuming that EPA provides the background documents requested on the QAPP before the holiday break, Givaudan is available on the following dates for a meeting with EPA in January 2014:

January 7 (afternoon)

January 15 (afternoon)

January 16 (afternoon)

Please let us know which date works best to you and your team.

Have a good weekend.

Thank you for responding to Givaudan's request. It is important to my client to review those materials before our meeting so we should reschedule it for January. I will send you potential dates for a meeting in January later today.

Bill,

I am still working on getting the QAPP background documents to you, as well as the revised QAPP. I think it will take a few more days. If it is important to your client that you have time to review the documents before we meet, I suggest that we look for meeting dates in early January.
