Counsel:

For your information, and in connection with the above-referenced site, I attach a copy of a complaint (with exhibits) that Ashland, International Specialty Products, and ISP Chemco filed against G-I Holdings and related companies in New Jersey state court on September 30, 2015. The defendants have since removed the case to the bankruptcy court in New Jersey, and the plaintiffs have filed a motion for a remand of the case to the state court.
