To: duteau, helen[Duteau.Helen@EPA.GOV]; White, Terri-A[White.Terri-A@epa.gov]; Ferrell, Mark[Ferrell.Mark@epa.gov]; Miller, Linda[miller.linda@epa.gov]; Seneca, Roy[Seneca.Roy@epa.gov]
From: Grundahl, Nancy
Sent: Thur 1/16/2014 5:33:16 PM
Subject: more Tweets re WV from Ken Ward & others

Kenwardjr @Kenwardjr 20m

Hey West Virginians, the @CDCgov is "learning as we go" when setting post-chemical spill water safety standards, http://www.wvgazette.com/News/201401160034 …

Kenwardjr @Kenwardjr 45m

Bill introduced by @SenatorUnger to regulate storage tanks ... but it gets double-referenced. Not on fast track.

Kenwardjr @Kenwardjr 29m

The @CDCgov speaks: Feds defend emergency WV water standard, in interview with @wvgazette's @davidlgutman http://www.wvgazette.com/News/201401160034 ….

Joel Achenbach @JoelAchenbach 34m

CDC director won't answer chemical toxicity questions at home, punts reporter to press office @KSJTracker http://ksj.mit.edu/tracker/2014/01/wv-water-contamination-cdc-director-boot …

HuffPost Green @HuffPostGreen 1h

West Virginians after spill: "We don't know where else this chemical may be stored." http://huff.to/1drwri9

The Allegheny Front @AlleghenyFront 1h

Pregnant [in West Virginia]? Bottled water recommended(@wvgazette)
http://bit.ly/1as5Ujs