Sounds good. Welcome back. I will be sending you a link today for another Title V Big Sky (the one that does not have a shield and expires in March). I assume you got U.S. Pipe's and Bluestone Coke (formerly ERP will be next week). Just wanted to pour on the good news. ☺

Randy,
I hope you are enjoying some time off.
Just wanted to check the status on the review of US Steel's permit.

Thanks
