John, Carrie, I have reviewed the RI date July 2013, and while there are still some issues - such as the response to comment 14, and the overall discussion of arsenic - I believe the information is sufficient for the FS, the proposed plan and the ROD. So, EPA send a letter approving the final RI this week.

Oh, one note, on the response to ES Comment 2. The new wording is fine, but please delete the original sentence that started with. "Each of these other site…"

Jon

Ps, please tell Gary this was one of the most thorough RIs I've ever seen.
