I wanted to send you a note to let you know the conversation with Delanie went really well and she was open to the majority of the recommended edits (please note I sent her a version with only the track changes and not the comments). We agreed that she will send back a counter draft to address the minor items that she does not agree with. If we are open next week and if folks are available I will try to move the meeting up if her draft comes in by then.

As an aside, she has not heard back from ADC, but informed me that she contacted Mr. Goff and his supervisor within the past couple of weeks.

Thanks Brittany. If we are open on Monday I will be working from home and am available for a conversation.
