FYI – Title VI complaint against the Agribusiness Development Corporation was resolved today. The Title VI complaint against the Hawaii Dept. of Ag was resolved back in May of this year.

One important thing to note. The entirety of the complaint against ADC involved the Agency needing to obtain an NDPES Permit for the Mana Plain drainage ditch system. Last month, the federal court in Hawaii ruled that ADC needs to obtain a NPDES permit for the drainage ditch system. The Honolulu Star covered the story: https://www.staradvertiser.com/2019/07/10/breaking-news/federal-judge-finds-state-agency-violated-clean-water-act-on-kauai/.
