

Prorate cost by flows into large separator

Smaller individual oil separators by users

1. lower flows & closer to source of pollutant the better chance to trap pollutant
2. Maintenance cost slightly higher for several small separators over a large unit
3. Large separator installation cost may be higher over several small units especially if flows from cleaner runoff areas included
   Smaller units shallower under ground but more piping & manhole work is needed

KCSlip4 52810

SEA419170