This is good Jon I would edit a bit the language describing the Strat next steps,we are not going to talk about next steps re the litigation?? Rather the resolution of this case. I edited the language in the next to last sentence below. Thanks!

Also, what I mean by the "strategic next steps" meeting is where I'd start by sharing our takeaways from the interview where we might need R4's technical assistance to investigate on the ground (if any – we'd first circle back internally and discuss whether there's any potentially actionable technical substance to whatever is raised, whether by OCR or another part of the Agency, that we'd need their help on) and then ask you to share your big-picture vision for Tallassee from the procedural side/informal resolution as it relates to shared recipient on Arrowhead, etc.
