We don't have a go on issuing the letter yet, however, we are still shooting for a final draft tomorrow or Friday that we can share with a couple of others for comment. So, I am going to share with Kurt a cleaner version of the whole letter and ask if he can work on integrating the new legal analysis section so that we can see the whole thing. In the meantime, I am going to review the latest legal section with everyone's comments, tonight. Thanks again!

You'll note that I have recopied Nancy's comments over from her version (I was working off Jeryl's version when Nancy's was sent and couldn't get Word to incorporate them in a cleaner fashion). I also gave re-articulating the alleged harms a try.

Here are my comments on the draft. My main comment is my first comment relating to how we characterize the siting factor allegation and our analysis.

Please feel free to give me a call if you have any questions etc.

Hello. Note this is the Legal Analysis Action, which we are working to incorporate into the full letter, including how we will articulate the Compliance review issue. But for the time being wanted to get this out to all concerned.
