Shawn
I left for the day to meet an insurance rep regarding the recent storm. I copied you on a short message that I sent to Ed Fanning of Consol. Told him I would get back to him early next week after you and I met. He emailed back and seems ok with that.

I know you are busy today. Now that Ed has been contacted I think we can talk Monday. I want to get your support for our proposed path forward then call HQ and assure that that we limit confusion.
If you want to talk today of course I will have my phone with me.
