Dear Mr. Epp:

Please accept this email as our amended request for a complete copy of the Environmental Protection Agency's file(s) pertaining to the above-referenced information, including, but not limited to:

> any written material, whether typed handwritten printed or otherwise, or any recording of any communication, meeting, event or document by means of film, microfilm, photograph, sound recording, tape, videotape, or any other mechanical or electronic means, any tangible things, notes, memoranda, papers, books, publications, newspapers, records, letters, emails, metadata, personal files, photographs, affidavits, statements, telegrams, cables, telex messages, telecopy messages, telefax messages, circulars, bulletins, notices, announcements, advertisements, releases, articles, instructions, reports, opinions, analyses, tests, studies, evaluations, charts, ledgers, manuals, account books, brochures, schedules, lists, worksheets, workpapers, summaries, journals, diaries, desk calendars, appointment books, agenda, transcripts, minutes, agreements, leases, contracts, invoices, payment records, deposit slips, bank statements, check stubs, receipts, and stock certificates, as well as any and all drafts of the foregoing. "Document" also means and refers to any data stored electronically and capable of being retrieved by computer or word processor and printed therefrom.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Kind regards,

Samanthia S. Marshall
