Joint Service Commendation Medal

CHIEF CRYPTOLOGIC TECHNICIAN COLLECTION ERNEST GONZALES, United States Navy, distinguished himself by exceptionally meritorious service from March 2006 to August 2009 while serving within the National Security Agency/Central Security Service Texas. During this period, Chief Gonzales excelled as the Customer Relations Directorate Senior Enlisted Leader for 19 multiservice and civilian personnel. He provided expert oversight of manning and training essential to the division's support to Overseas Contingency Operations. As the Noncommissioned Officer-in-Charge of Long Term Analysis, he increased training within the branch by over 200 percent, providing an increase in technical knowledge that directly contributed to forward deployed units supporting tactical theater commanders and Overseas Contingency Operations. Additionally, he implemented several programs to recognize outstanding performance and to improve the Division's cohesiveness leading to the selection of three Sailor's of the Quarter and a 40 percent advancement rate. His professionalism, coupled with his leadership skills, high-level of technical aptitude and operational experience were key to improving the overall posture for the Customer Relations Directorate and had a significant impact on all divisions at the Texas Cryptologic Center. Chief Gonzales' professionalism, devotion to duty, and distinctive accomplishments reflect great credit upon himself and are in keeping with the highest traditions of the National Security Agency/Central Security Service, the United States Navy, and the Department of Defense.
